1. The Islamic Movement in Israel

The Islamic Movement in Israel was established in 1971 by Sheikh Abdullah Nimar Darwish. Ideologically, the movement is part of a large group of Islamic movements which are connected to the 'Muslim Brotherhood' Movement which aspires to the resurrection of Islam, and believe that Islam is the solution. However, the movement differs from its sister movements in the rest of the world by adopting Palestinian ethnicity and nationality, while in the rest of the ideological world identified with it, nationality is perceived as lowest in the set of priorities, and at times even contrary to the values of Islam.

In 1996 the Islamic movement split into a Northern Faction and a Southern Faction which established the United Arab List, and ran for Knesset.

In 2010 Sheikh Hamed Abu Daabas was elected to head the Southern Faction. About a month after his election, Abu Daabas participated along with Shiekh Raed Salah in the Marmara flotilla to Gaza, and was even arrested due to this activity.

The chairman of the Southern Faction Daabas has two deputies in office: Sheikh Safuat Frige, and MK Mansur Abbas, chairman of the United Arab List Party.

In 2015, after years of wild incitement and support of terrorism, the Northern Faction of the movement headed by Raed Salah was outlawed.

The Southern Faction operates a wide variety of associations and organizations which deal with civil services to Muslim citizens in Israel and operates to advance their standing and rights, as well as aiding Muslims in Judea and Samaria, the Gaza Strip, Syria, Lebanon, Turkey, Jordan and in other countries.

The United Arab List and the ideology of the Islamic Movement

The United Arab List is officially the political arm of the Islamic Movement in Israel, and the Shura council of the southern faction controls the United Arab List.¹

Outwardly, members of the southern faction headed by sheikh Hamed Abu Daabas display a moderate and humanist worldview, which accepts the existence of Israel and even participates in state institutions for the welfare of the Arab public.

However, in between the lines, it is possible to notice quite a few clues to the real perceptions of the members of the Southern Faction, which are not being explicitly and publicly stated in Israeli ears.

About a month after being appointed as the chairman of the Southern Faction, sheikh Abu Daabas sailed on the Turkish Marmara ship which attempted to break through the naval blockade imposed by Israel on the Gaza Strip. He publicly supports Sheikh Ekrima Sa'id Sabri, the former Mufti of Jerusalem, who is known for his extreme and anti-Semitic views, including expressions of support in terrorism and suicide bombings. Recently, following the Taliban takeover of Afghanistan and the expulsion of the American forces during August 2021, the chairman of the Islamic Movement wrote an article stating the hope for the fall of the west into the hands of Islam rule.²

2. The Islamic Association for Orphans and the Needy and their ties to Hamas and terror organizations

The organization with the largest volume of activities and budget of the Islamic Movement is the "Igatha 48" Association, whose official name is 'The Islamic Association for Orphans and the Needy (R.A 580288470). In total, over the past decade the Association has raised donations in a total amount of 224.5 Million NIS.

The C.E.O of the Association, Ghazi Issa, stated in an interview in 2020 that "The Islamic Movement led by Sheikh Hamed Abu Daabas founded the aid association in 1996, thanks to a group of the Islamic Movement activists, following the shutdown of the Islamic Support Committee by the authorities in Israel under the pretext of the fight against terrorism and the support of Hamas⁶

In an application to register the association from 1996 it was written that the purpose of the association is:

"Activities in matters of charity and charitable giving in the spirit of the Islam faith and in accordance with its laws, including taking care of affairs and filling the needs of orphans, widows, prisoners and their families, and the poor in general in the State of Israel and the occupied territories, including the Gaza Strip and the West Bank..."

The Association's website explicitly states that it aids many families of jihadists and detainees.⁷

In practice, the association reports that it assists Palestinians in Judea and Samaria, the Gaza Strip, Sudan, northern Syria, Lebanon⁸, and Turkey.⁹ The main activity of the association is concentrated in assistance activities for the needy, and the association is very prominent in the field.¹⁰ The assistance provided by the association to families in Gaza, Judea and Samaria, and foreign countries is mainly financial assistance.¹¹ Still, the association also distributes equipment, funds scholarships, and carries out various construction projects for the needy.

In an interview with the association's chairman Ali Katanani on 11/17/2020, he stated that the association sponsors and assists 18,546 orphans, the needy, students, the disabled, and needy families. According to him, most of the people supported by the

The director of the association's branch in Tulkarm, responsible for distributing the association's money in the city, is a Palestinian named Azhar Shaharur.¹³

Azhar Shaharur, is the sister of the terrorist "Ma'amar Fatehi Shaharur".

Shaharur was one of the commanders of Hamas' operational infrastructure in Tulkarm, who recruited, provided equipment, and led the suicide bombers to an attack on the Park Hotel in Netanya on Passover night in 2002, in which 29 Israelis were killed. He is currently imprisoned in Israel.

Azhar Shaharur has repeatedly posted support for her terrorist brother on her Facebook page, wishing him his release from prison while uploading photos of him in uniform and holding a weapon.¹⁴ In addition to that, she put a picture of her brother armed with a weapon as her profile picture.¹⁵

Ties of the Igatha 48 Association, with the Hamas Terror Organization and other terror organizations

On November 26th, 2019, a chapter of the Association in Gaza was inaugurated. Attending the opening ceremony of the chapter were the chairman of the Association Ali Katanani, C.E.O of the Association Ghazi Issa, member of the political chamber of Hamas – Ghazi Hamed, who in the past, while serving as a spokesperson for the Hamas Government, called for the annihilation of the State of Israel.¹⁶

The funds of the Association go to the families of jihadists in Gaza¹⁷ including to those who participated in the Gaza Border Protests.¹⁸

The "Igatha48" association has transferred tens of millions of shekels in aid to the Gaza Strip in recent years.

Since the opening of the association's branch in Gaza in November 2019, the association has begun working in collaboration with the Hamas Ministry of Social Development in Gaza, whose deputy director is Ghazi Hamad, a member of the Hamas Politburo.

The aid to Gaza is transferred in money and goods distributed by the association's employees throughout the Gaza Strip, in coordination with the Ministry of Social Development. Despite its innocent name, the Ministry of Social Development transfers funding from the Hamas government in Gaza to terrorists who fought with IDF soldiers and were wounded. In addition to families of terrorists killed and those injured in the "March of Return" protests that began in March 2018 along the Gaza Strip border. This is what the Hamas Ministry of Finance announced regarding the distribution of funds, which is in cooperation with the Ministry of Social Development in July 2019²⁰, December 2020, and March 2021. In September 2021, the Ministry of Social Development announced a date for the distribution of funds for the families of those killed and injured following the "March of Return" protests.²¹

Every year, the Hamas Ministry of Social Development in Gaza publishes a summary of annual activities. Every year the ministry states in the reports how much money has been distributed as non-periodic allowances to the "martyrs of the homeland" families. These allowances are apparently granted in addition to the regular allowances provided by the Hamas government and the Palestinian Authority government to terrorists and their families. According to the reports, in the years 2017-2019, the Ministry of Social Development distributed benefits to 157 families of "martyrs of the homeland" in a total amount of about NIS 4.8 million.²²

In December 2020, the "Igatha48" association held a conference in cooperation with Hamas' Ministry of Social Development in Gaza on "Assistance for the Disabled". The event also dealt with assisting the wounded of the "March of Return" protests. At the event, representatives of the association spoke alongside Hamas's representatives, and in the background, there was a sign with the symbols (logos) of the two bodies. A report on the joint activity was published both on the association's website and on the official Facebook page of the Ministry of Social Development and its website.²³

The annual event marking the association's achievements in 2020, held on February 27, 2021, in Gaza, was once again attended by Hamas Politburo member Ghazi Hamad, who serves as Deputy Director of the Ministry of Social Development in Gaza and accompanied by Imad al-Falouji.²⁴

such as orphans, students, prisoners, low-income families, and families with special needs.²⁵

In a greeting delivered by Ghazi Hamad at the event, he said:

"I want to take this opportunity to thank my brothers at the "Igatha48" association, and especially Dr. Ali Katanani, Chairman of the "Igatha48" association, for his tremendous and valued efforts, and also to all the staff at this association who have set an excellent example in providing assistance and giving without limits. Whether it is inside the Palestinian territories or outside the Palestinian territories, their projects, work, and activities. It testifies and sums up a lot of words. As I said, they do an effective and excellent job towards different sectors like the orphanage sector, students, prisoners, low-income families, and people with special needs. These diverse and multiple activities contribute significantly to alleviating our Palestinian people's suffering and strengthening our resilience on Palestinian soil."

A screenshot from a live broadcast of the speech of Ghazi Hamad - a member of the Hamas Politburo, at the association's annual event in Gaza. Next to it are the symbols of the association and the Islamic movement.

Ali Katanani, chairman of the organization, said at the event that the work of assistance teams in delivering assistance to Palestinian residents underscores the "cohesion of our Palestinian people everywhere, no matter how narrow the roads".

²⁵<https://shehabnews.com/post/78665/%D8%AC%D9>

The event was also attended by the former Hamas government health minister in Gaza, Dr. Bassem Naim, who said, "the assistance provided by the brothers in the Islamic Movement is unconditional. It comes from the religious, legitimate and national duty".

Activities of the Association in Turkey and Syria and their ties with Muslim organizations which support terrorism in Turkey

About six years ago, the Igatha 48 Association delivered large scale assistance to various destinations in Turkey and North Syria, and its seniors came to visit those areas.²⁶

As part of the donation distribution project, the representatives of the Igatha 48 Association joined a local Islamic Association named "Furkan".²⁷

This association supports the Hamas²⁸, does not recognize the state of Israel²⁹ and promotes anti-Semitic agendas.³⁰ The founder of the association - Alparslan Kuytul, was refused entry into Denmark due to radical religious opinions³¹, and students of his joined various jihadist organizations and even ISIS.³²

Another piece of evidence of the connection between the Igatha 48 Association and the 'Muslim Brotherhood' Organizations on Turkish soil, is the membership of the Association in the "Union of Non-Governmental Organizations of the Islamic World" (İDSB)

The purpose of the unification is to coordinate the activities of Islamic aid organizations around the world.

In the Organization there are members associated with extreme Islamic terrorism and are on the list of US and Israeli terror organizations, including WAMY (Saudi Arabia),

The connection between the Igatha 48 Association and the United Arab List Party

As stated, the Association was established by the Islamic Movement, is staffed by the members of the Movement, is managed according to the resolutions of the Shura Council of the Islamic movement, and is referenced as part of the institutions of the Islamic Movement. It should be noted that according to the Islamic Movement's announcement, the Shura Council is the one that decided on the appointments of the C.E.O and President of the Association, so it can be assumed that its control of the Movement is absolute.³³

3. The Al-Aqsa Association for the Development of Islamic Waqf Assets

The Al-Aqsa Association for the Development of Islamic Waqf Assets (R.A 580179794), known in its abbreviated name "Al-Aqsa Association". The Association was established³⁵ by the Islamic Movement in 1991, and is registered in Kfar Bara.

The Association was founded prior to the split in the Islamic Movement between the Northern and Southern Factions, and among its founders it is possible to find the head of the Northern Faction, Sheikh Raed Salah³⁶

Today the Association is run by members of the Southern Faction.

Chairman of the Association is Sheikh Safuat Frige, Vice President of the Southern Faction. Chairman of the Islamic Movement – Southern Faction, Sheikh Hamed Abu Daabas, serves as a member of the Association's board since 2016. Ghazi Isaa was the CEO of the association between 2015 and 2019 and before that worked in various positions in the association.

Sources of Income of the Association from Hamas terror financing funds

Between the years 2007 – 2019 the Association received donations from foreign Islamic funds in a total amount of about 12,500,000 NIS. These funds are the main sources of funding the Association's activities.

An organization declared as an illegal association in Israel

Reported donations for the Association from foreign Islamic funds, some are declared as illegal organizations due to their ties with Hamas financing of terror.

Four of the funds donating to the Al-Aqsa Association were declared in Israel as an "Illegal Organization" under order of the Minister of Defense, due to the fact that these foundations raise funds around the world to fund the Hamas terror organization, and in fact belong to it. These organizations are part of a group of funds which raise funds for the activities of the Muslim Brotherhood and the Hamas Organization called "The Coalition of Charity".

In 2015, the Ministry of Defence confiscated all the funds in the bank account of Al-Aqsa in the amount of NIS 147,023, and the account was emptied due to the receipt of the funds from Aman Palestine.

The declaration of the Minister of Defense on the funding body of the Al-Aqsa organization as an illegal association

In Conclusion

The current Israeli government was established with the support of the United Arab List Party, when for the first time since the establishment of the state, an Arab party is a partner in the coalition and in running the country.

Seemingly, this is the maturation of a process of integrating the Israeli Arabs with the State of Israel as regular citizens.

The United Arab List is the political arm of the Islamic Movement in Israel, which, as Prime Minister Naftali Bennett said on the eve of the last election, is a sister movement of the Hamas. As a political arm, the United Arab List Party functions as one of the tentacles of the Islamic Movement in Israel, and is part of the fabric of interrelated organizations linked to one another, which operate under the same religious authority and spiritual leadership which makes the decisions of the Islamic Movement in Israel.

Organizations affiliated with the Movement and the Party maintain financial ties with the Hamas terror organization, Extreme Islamic organizations in Turkey, as well as show support in terrorists.

The Islamic Movement has many additional organizations in the field of education, religious services, student cells, women organization, Islam studies, representation in the Teachers' Union and more. The Islamic Movement and the United Arab List Party have representation and control of tens of municipalities and local authorities nationwide.

The vast sums of money expected to be transferred to local authorities, organizations and companies in the Arab society as part of the state's budget, may find their way from the treasury to the pockets of the Hamas terror organization, in the same ways that funds are already being transferred from the Islamic Movement to Hamas factors, as well as in new ways.
