

FEAR OF ISRAELI ARAB & PALESTINIAN VIOLENT OUTBREAK DUE TO THE “PROPHECY CALCULATION” FROM THE QURAN REGARDING THE DESTRUCTION OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL (APRIL TO JULY 2022).

UPDATE: THURSDAY 21ST ADAR II 5782, 24/03/2022

Main points:

The developing wave of terror in the past weeks is expected to exacerbate as the commemoration of “YOM H’ADAMA – Land Day” approaches and the intensification of other violence with the commencing of the month of Ramadan.

A feeling of success for the participants of violent disruptions in past Ramadan and their supporters is likely to turn this coming Ramadan into a new-founded effort to incite violent outrage inside Israel and a renewed round for the terror organizations in Gaza.

The combination of the expectations of some Hamas supporters, of renewed violence, due to mathematical calculations from verses in the Quran, by a senior Hamas member, Sheik Bassam Jarrar. And claims that Israel will be destroyed in the upcoming months, together with inciteful speeches made by the vice head of the northern faction of the Islamic movement, Sheikh Kamil Chatib, that makes calculations that something is imminent, encourages organized and separate terror attacks to be carried out. This could develop into a significant outbreak of terror.

Mixed residential cities in Israel could again find themselves in the center of violent clashes from a local initiative and a Hamas initiative and should prepare accordingly.

BACKGROUND:

In December 1992, Israel deported 415 active terrorists and Hamas leaders, and Palestinian Islamic Jihad leaders to Lebanon. Among the deported was Sheik Bassam Nihad Jarrar,¹ a senior Hamas leader. These terrorists set up tents in Mar’j- a- zuchar’ which is situated north of the security strip in Lebanon that Israel guards.

During his time in Lebanon, Jarrar began to spread the word of mathematical calculations based on verses from the Koran, claiming that the State of Israel would be destroyed in 2022.

He was deported to Lebanon in 1992. He was under administrative arrest several times and in Israeli prison for several years

In 1995, Jarrar first published his book called “the disappearance Of Israel in 2022 – a prophecy from the Koran or a numerical coincidence.”²

In his book, Jarrar forecasts that Israel will cease to exist in the year 2022. This theory materialized due to mathematical calculations based on the number 19 and its connection to several correlations in the Koran that deal with Bnei Israel and the revelation of truth. Jarrar adds testimonies from 1992 from an Islamic preacher called Abed Al-Menam Salach, otherwise referred to as Ahmed Al-Rashid, one of the more outspoken leaders of the Muslim Brotherhood in Iraq. According to testimonies, his mother had told him that in 1948, an old Jewish Iraqi neighbor came to her, crying. His mother asked her why she was crying since this must be a joyous day for Jews due to the establishment of the State of Israel. The old lady replied that she was crying because the State of Israel will be destroyed after 76 lunar years and 74 solar years according to their calculations, and as such, this would refer to the year 2022.

Throughout the years, this calculation grew in acceptance as a source for hidden prophecy, the verses of the Koran, the religious authorities, and Islamic believers and Hamas supporters. Also, the Islamic holy sages in Egypt have accepted Jarrar's prophecy as correct.³ In contrast, the Fatah movement mocked Jarrar. However, stand by his calculations and continues, in recent years, to spread them to the masses.

Even recently, Jarrar claimed that his calculations were accurate and gave exact dates for the events.

On March 5th, 2022, Jarrar published an estimated time range for his interpretations to materialize. From January 1st, 2022, until July 2022,⁴ the chance of “fulfillment of the prophecy” stands at 98%. Jarrar claims that it is possible that the war with Israel will last for a few days, or perhaps even less.⁵

Jarrar points out, according to his calculations, the particular dates that he believes the important events will occur: On the 29th of June 2022, according to “Sura” 54, verse 45, “the people will lose and retreat”, and on the 8th of July 2022 “Arafat Day” when Muslims celebrate before “Id El-Adha” (the day of the Sacrifice).⁶

Concurrently to Jarrar, other Islamic religious leaders spread additional calculations regarding the annihilation of the State of Israel. Some of them negate his prophecy, the most prominent is the prophecy of Sheikh Ahmed Yassin, the founding leader of Hamas, that announced in 2011 that the year 2027 would be the time when the State of Israel would cease to exist.⁷

In 2014, in a speech made in Gaza, Hamas leader, Fatha Chamad (Abu Misa'b), a member of the Hamas council, ⁸said: ⁹

“Our enemy has only eight years remaining until they leave our land in the battle that we’ll win.”

In 2014, the Hamas movement in Gaza established the “Institute for the End of Days”.

In September 2021, that institute held a conference in Gaza, where Yichia San'war and other Hamas leaders from subsidiary organizations participated. At that conference, the principles regarding how the Palestinians should be treated in the period after the destruction of the State of Israel and before establishing the new Palestinian state on the Israeli ruins. In the closing statement at the conference, it was announced:

“The time has come to act. The preparation for the liberation of Palestine has begun from the liberation that has spread in this conference’ and clearly from the fighters’ that long to free the land and holy sites, we are approaching the G-d’s promised victory.” ¹⁰

UP TO DATE INFORMATION REGARDING THE MATERIALIZATION OF THE DESTRUCTION OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL IN THE COMING MONTHS.

Notably, several Islamic religious authorities with status in Israel and the Palestinian territories view these interpretations as a prophecy that will actualize in the future, and they believe that they must act in preparation.

For example, Sheikh Kamil H'tiv, vice head of the northern front of the Islamic movement, which has been outlawed, recently used Jarrar's commentaries in the sermons he makes to his listeners and further supplemented them with his own addition to further inflate it:

“At the end of the month of Adar,’ the events in our region will snowball quickly, which will heat up the coming month of Ramadan. The events will be stepped up in the month of May. And reach their heights on ‘Arafat Day’ – 08/07/2022.” ¹¹

The Sheikh Yusef El-Baz, the Imam of the large mosque in Lod that was arrested after riots in May 2021 due to violent messages that he conveyed, also employs Jarrar's calculations and speaks of the impending destruction of the State of Israel. On 27/03/2020, El-Baz posted on Facebook:

“More than 30 years ago, the prophecy that the State of Israel would cease to exist in the year 2022, Gantz is supposed to be Prime Minister in the month of Elul, 2021, and he will be the 19th Prime Minister of Israel, four months later, the year 2022 will begin. Will our theory/prophecy that Israel will cease to exist, actualize?”

I am convinced that Israel will cease to exist, with no connection to the prophecy of 2022. It will cease to exist because it is a country with depressed and cruel leadership. Israel has caused corruption in the world due to its arrogance. It is the reason for world tragedies; it is the reason for the Arabs’ backwardness. It is the reason for the existence of gangs within the Arab world.

Yes. I am convinced that Israel will cease to exist. I am confident in G-d's justice, and he will not allow this injustice to continue the face of the earth." ¹²

On 17/02/2022, El-Baz posted on Facebook:

"Even if Jarrar didn't exist, the number 2022 wasn't present; I am convinced that Israel would cease to exist soon. It will be destroyed by the great G-d because Israel is an apartheid state. In the country that causes injustice, G-d has decreed destruction. It is written in the holy sacred Book. ¹³

THE INFLUENCE OF THE PROPHECY ON THE ATMOSPHERE AMONG MUSLIMS, PALESTINIANS, AND RESIDENTS OF ISRAEL:

In May 2021, the Palestinian terrorist, Montsur Shalbi, murdered Yehuda Guetta z" l and injured two others in a shooting attack at the Tapuach intersection in Sumeria. In January 2022. A Palestinian published that his brother met with the Shalbi terrorist in court. He asked him why he committed the crime. In his words, Shalbi responded that he believes in the calculations of Sheikh Jarar. He was concerned that Palestine would be liberated before he'd had the opportunity to do something for the cause; that's why he wanted to do something for Palestine." ¹⁴

Since the end of Ramadan in May 2021 and the riots that were carried out during that time, particularly the past few weeks, the expectation for many Muslims that the "prophecy" will actualize soon, is increasing.

In Arab social media, video clips, ¹⁵ songs, and quotes are being disseminated, encouraging the expectation of the impending destruction of Israel, beginning from the start of Ramadan until July 2022. They enthuse the Muslim atmosphere, which could translate into this into violent outbursts.

The video clips call for those who believe in Islam to be prepared to defend the Al-Aksa Mosque and carry out violent riots across the country during Ramadan. According to them, this will be a turning point in the Palestinian struggle against Israel.

Looming in the background, the constant threats of a harsh military response have been published recently¹⁶ by Hamas against Israel as a warning not to harm the Temple Mount and the inhabitants of Sheikh 'Jarrah. The numerous representatives continue to increase the threats regarding the Iranian regime and the expected revenge for the killing of officers and senior members of the recent revolution.

ORGANIZED EVENTS THAT ARE LIKELY TO TURN INTO VIOLENT OUTBURSTS IN PREPARATION FOR THE NEXT FEW MONTHS:

As the wave of terror seems to be growing in recent weeks, at its height, a murderous attack in Be'er Sheva by a Bedouin from Chura, killed four Jewish people. There are already various appointed events that may cause the beginning of a broader conflict. As one might recall, less than a year ago, during Ramadan, The Hamas terror organization began battle under the title "Jerusalem sword". It started in Jerusalem and developed into violent riots in mixed residential cities and the Negev at the same time as fighting in the Gaza Strip, the "Guarding the Walls" campaign.

The imprisoned terrorists in Israel were expected to begin a hunger strike on the 25th of March as demand for the return of benefits that had been canceled after the event of the Gilboa Prison escape.¹⁷ In disseminated video clips, it states that this is the most significant inmates' struggle since 2004.¹⁸ At the last minute, it was announced that the strike had been canceled because the terrorists' demands had been met.

On the 26th of March, the second round of elections was held in Palestinian local councils and created a source of tension and conflict between the Palestinian factions, mainly between Hamas and the Fatah. In social media and on Hamas sites, as well as those of the "Left", claims of Fatah's intention to distort the results, alongside the claims of Israeli involvement, were expressed clearly by Islam Tawil's arrest (the son of "Jamal Tawil, the head of Al-Bira's council, a Hamas representative) a member of The Combined List of the Hamas and the Peoples' front in Al-Bira, by the I.D.F.¹⁹

On March 26, a Hamas activity will be held to mark 'Land Day' in the 'return camp' east of Gaza City, in parallel with activities organized by Israeli Arabs inside Israel.²⁰

On the 26th of March, the committee for the surveillance of the Negev carried out activities in the village of Sawa at 15:00. This village had been the source of violent riots in January 2022, opposing the planting of seedlings by K.K.L on surrounding lands.²¹ On that same day, there was further activity, marking "Land Day" in the village of Al Akrib, in the Negev.

On March 30th, Hamas holds a central activity marking “Land Day” at the Gaza port. At noon, the transport in Gaza will stop, and the drivers will blow their horns. Before that, on that same day, another activity of tree planting around Karni, in the vicinity of the eastern fence of Gaza, was held.²²

On March 30th, the Israeli Arabs organized an activity to mark “Land Day” in Araba.

Ramadan began on April 2nd, 2022, and continues for a month. Fridays are focal points, and there is a three-day festivity at the end of the month called “Id El Fitter.” From previous experience, in this month of fasting during the days and feasting in the evenings, the level of violence and number of attacks increases. Due to Muslim religious adherence, perpetrating terrorist attacks is considered obligatory. The festival of Pesach (Passover) that will be held during this month, is expected to be a potentially, additional point of struggle, due to the calls from Muslim religious leaders to “protect Al-Aksa Mosque from the settlers” that are expected to visit the Temple Mount during the festival.

IMPLICATIONS:

The current wave of terror that has been developing in the past few weeks is expected to worsen with the marking of “Land Day” in the next few days in the Palestinian territories and the Gaza Strip, among Israeli Arabs and the Bedouins of the Negev. The violent struggle is likely to increase with the onset of the month of Ramadan at the beginning of April.

The participants of the violent riots in last year’s Ramadan, feel a sense of victory. There is concern that this year’s Ramadan could be a repeated attempt to hold violent riots within Israel, with an additional bout of fighting initiated by terror organizations in Gaza, while justifying the violence in the name of “protection of the Al-Aksa Mosque”. The combination of these, together with the expectations of some of the Hamas supporters of unusual occurrences due to mathematical calculations, made by senior Hamas leader Sheikh Bassam Jarar, of verses of the Koran, especially in the light of the inciting speech given by the vice head of the northern faction of the Islamic movement, Sheikh Kamal Chatib, that spouts calculations that conclude that something is imminent is about to occur, could cause terrorist attacks, organized or not. This could transform into a significant wave of terror.

Mixed residential cities in Israel. Could again become the centers of violent riots locally initiated with Hamas's assistance, and we must prepare accordingly.

In addition, we are calling upon the security network to reconsider allowing the easing of benefits that have been promised to Palestinians throughout the month of Ramadan, including the entry of Gazan residents to visit Israeli prisons, entry of workers from Gaza, and the ascending of Palestinians to the Temple Mount, and more.
